Advice on using your Blixer®:

- If you have to process raw or hard foods, begin by removing the lid scraper arm. Next, use the pulse function to chop the food and reduce its volume. Put the scraper arm back when you are ready to blend.
- Raw ingredients must be processed for 60-90 seconds to obtain a sufficiently fine texture.
- Always add seasoning after blending – never before.
- Patients who have difficulty swallowing require extremely smooth and creamy textures (e.g. cream dessert), so make sure you add sufficient liquid.
- You can equip your machine with a second complete bowl set (bowl, lid, blade assembly, scraper arm) to avoid wasting time between preparations.

How to look after your Blixer®:

- Check the sharpness of the blades on a regular basis. Change them if necessary.
- Maintain your scraper arm by regularly replacing the bowl and lid scrapers.
- Get your dealer to carry out a full annual service.
